WILLIAM MYKINLEY,
HIS LIFE AND WORK.
BY GENERAL CHARLES H. GROSVENOR,
the late President's lifelong friend, comrade in war, colleague in Congress and champion in House of Representatives; was near the President's side with other great men when his eyes were closed in death; followed his remains to National Capital and to Canton. Millions of copies will be sold. Sales spreading like fire in dry stubble; men and women taking 10 to 50 orders daily. It is the official book. Eulogies from Governors. Senators, editorials from great dailies. Last and dying words of world's great men, but none so grand as McKinley?—"IT IS GOP'S WAY." Contains photogravure of last photograph of President ever taken. You can easily and quickly clear $2,590. The General requires that share of proceeds of sale of every book sold shall be donated to a McKinley Monument Fund. Thus every subscriber to this book becomes a contributer to this fund. Everybody will buy it; orders for the asking; no one will refuse. Send twelve 2c stamps for elegant prospectus; 100,600 copies will be sold in this vicinity quick; wideawake business man or woman of some means can make a fortune quick by getting sole control of a State.
